

VOYAGES

Brilliant For You

AN EPIC SEA CHANGE FOR ALL

Sustainability and Virgin Voyages

“ There is nothing more important in this world than our oceans, and we're on a mission to protect them and set an example. Success needn't compromise sustainability. **”

— RICHARD BRANSON

---

Contact your Travel Advisor to set sail:

>> 92%

Sailors who agree we take our commitment to social & environmental responsibility seriously.

>> 50%

Sailors who, in a post-voyage survey, say we inspired them to live a more sustainable life.

>$5M

In-kind donations awarded to not-for-profit organizations last year.

2025

When we anticipate that all of our ships will be using emissions-reducing shore power at ports where it is available, including at our home in Miami, Terminal V.

100%

Amount of collected funds that go to our not-for-profit partner Tip The Ocean, advancing ocean health awareness & conservation programs.

65%
Tours with operators that meet sustainable tourism standards.

| Unnecessary

single-use plastics are banned from the Sailor experience.

| Responsible relaxation

Balcony cabins feature Yellow Leaf Hammocks woven by the expert craftswomen of the Mlabri Tribe in the hills of Northern Thailand.

| A better Beach Club at Bimini

Our ban on single-use plastics extends to our beach club, which also features natural materials, a recycling takeback program, and low-flow water fixtures.

| Food that tastes good & does good

No buffets = less waste. Direct-trade, Intelligentsia coffee. Vegetarian/vegan options at every eatery.